

Available Colors

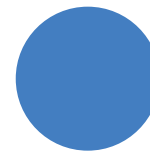

Keep in mind that color words like "violet" or "aqua" can have different interpretations, so try to think of them as "color families" rather than exact color matches. Also be aware that colors on a computer screen vary from those on printed material. It's helpful for our designers if a reference color can be selected from this list. If your magnet design includes a personal photo, we're generally able to match the color of a piece of clothing in the photo.
